GAVE THEM A SCARE.

Dunn Told the Bellboy He Had Taken Morphine.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 30.—A whirlwind of excitement was created in the Leland hotel here by J. M. Dunn, of Danville, Ky., who called a bellboy to his room and announced to him that he had taken a dose of morphine to end his earthly troubles. Dr. E. M. Wiley, who answered a call, hurried to the room, only to find Dunn sitting up in bed smoking a cigarette with no apparent thought of leaving this world by the suicide route. Dunn came here several months ago at the time "Scotland," the Death Valley plunger, was on his daring ride over the country, and announcing that he was the hero of that famous jaunt, began scattering his money to the newsboy and hotel porters. He returned to his Boyle county home.

A RUSSIAN COUNT.

Is Carefully Studying the Methods of American Trainers.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 30.—Count Malynsh, of Russia, owner of the good American-bred trotter Valentine, who has been making a tour of America, is now in this city, where he will remain for some time, studying the methods of the trainers of trotting horses, with the view of becoming an expert trainer in his native country. Count Malynsh has a select stud of about 20 mares, mostly American bred, and will while here purchase several promising youngsters to add to his racing stable next season. The veteran trainer, Charles Marvin, has engaged to train horses for Henry Exall, at Dallas, Tex., and is making his arrangements to depart for the Lone Star state.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Edgar Wolcott Shot By His Cousin, Wedell Moorman.

Central City, Ky., Oct. 30.—Edgar Wolcott, the 15-year-old son of Chas. Wolcott, a banker of South Carrollton, was accidentally killed by his cousin, Wedell Moorman, 17, while the boys were hunting. Moorman placed an old army musket on a stump to fix the hammer when it shot Wolcott at close range. He received the entire charge in his right side and died in his brother's arms. Wolcott's mother ran two miles to the scene, and she is now critically ill. Moorman is crazed with grief and tried to get the musket again to shoot himself.

Beaten By the Marshal.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 30.—Alfred E. Turner, a canaryman, who said he was from Cincinnati, but whose baggage indicated that his home was in Brooklyn, was arrested on a charge of assaulting women on the street. To the marshal he intimated that one of the women he hit and the officer gave him a drubbing, the woman in question being his relative. Turner paid $10 and costs after a pica of guilty.

To Keep Name Off Ballot.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 30.—Thomas Farmer of Rowan county, who was nominated by petition as republican candidate for representative from the Bath-Rowan district, will bring suit to enjoin the Rowan and Bath county clerks from placing Jefferson Howell's name on the ballot.

Will Banquet the Club.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 30.—According to an old-established custom, Harry Winston, one of Newport's prominent young men who has been recently married, will banquet the Henry Clay Debating Society of Newport, at his residence, Monday evening. November 6.

Detained Against Her Will.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 30.—John E. Burian was arrested at his home here on the charge of having detained against her will Mrs. I. J. Collier. The alleged offense was committed a week ago, but the police have kept the matter quiet in order to effect the capture.

J. S. Morgan Acquitted.

Orwinton, Ky., Oct. 30.—J. S. Morgan was acquitted of the murder of Benjamin S. McCoy, his brother-in-law, whom he shot at the latter's house in Oken county. The trouble originated from a quarrel that started when McCoy, it was alleged, abused his wife.

Probably Fell Overboard.

Covington, Ky., Oct. 30.—Fred Craner, a deckhand on the steamer Geo. Matheson, was reported missing when the boat pulled into Cincinnati on her trip from Louisville. Craner was last seen shortly after the boat left Vevay, Ind.

The Football Game.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 30.—The football game between State college and Kentucky university scheduled for Thanksgiving day will be the greatest, from a betting standpoint, in the history of the game in this city.

Woman's Rights Convention.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 30.—Representatives of the Woman's Equal Rights association will have their annual meeting in Newport this year, beginning November 10. They propose waging war for the right to vote.

Slew His Brother-in-Law.

Mt. Vernon, Ky., Oct. 30.—Tom Mitchell, a section hand, it is said, shot and killed his brother-in-law, John Stephens, at Livingston. He is in custody.

ESCAPED THE MOB.

A Fast Freight Train Saved Fred Watts at Somerset.

Somerset, Ky., Oct. 31.—Fred Watts, a dark young man, claiming white parentage of Canadian descent, was rushed into Somerset on a fast freight at an early hour by officers from Stearns, 30 miles below here, where by skillful work they escaped a mob of 300 citizens who wanted Watts's blood for the alleged crime of attempting to assault a woman and a child. Watts was brought here in charge of Deputy Sheriffs J. W. Boyatt, John McClusky and Noah Hanes, of Whitley county. He was working at a log camp near Stearns, and went to a spring, where he encountered Mrs. J. Waddle, a highly respected young married woman. He immediately, it is said, seized her, but the woman's screams attracted a neighbor, who came with a shotgun and fired at Watts as the latter fled. A few hours later, it is claimed, Watts appeared at the home of Mrs. James Litton where he again attempted an assault but the woman fled. He then seized Mrs. Litton's 6-year-old daughter, but a neighbor and an officer arrived in time to arrest him and rescue the child. The news spread and a mob formed. The officers stood away with the prisoner stopped a freight train and was soon safely away. Watts later was taken from here to the Williamsburg jail.

THE CALAHAN BROTHERS.

Some Shots Exchanged Between Them, It is Said.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—News of a serious difficulty between Sheriff Eli Callahan and his brother, Sam Callahan, of Breathitt county, in which shots were exchanged, has just reached this city, and, according to the information, more trouble is expected at any moment. The trouble between the two men grew out of a suit filed by Sheriff Callahan, asking for a dissolution of partnership in a mercantile business at Crockettsville, the home of the Callahans. Mrs. Callahan, wife of Sam Callahan, is authority for the statement that both her husband and his brother are housed with guns, and that bloodshed will likely follow their first meeting. The suit was filed by Sheriff Callahan against his brother shortly after the former was released from jail in this city, and the allegations were made that Sam Callahan had acted fraudulently in the business during the confinement of the sheriff in the Fayette county jail.

FELL DEAD OF EXHAUSTION.

A Woman Walked For Days Hunting For Her Husband.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 31.—Mrs. Mary Jahn, who came here last Thursday from Indianapolis to visit Mrs. Lizzie Coleman, of 213 Eighteenth street, died suddenly Monday, and Coroner Kelly is investigating. Mrs. Jahn had tramped all over the city searching for her husband, who had, she claimed, abandoned her. Upon her return she complained of being tired. Later she was found lifeless. Mrs. Jahn was 46 years old.

A Fight in a Mine.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 31.—A general fight took place at Rose Run iron mines, this county, between Riley and Will Craig and James Munday on one side and several unknown on the other. Two unknown men were seriously cut, and others dangerously beaten with rocks and clubs. None have been captured.

Editor Moore Is Sinking.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—Reports from the bedside of Editor Charles C. Moore are that he is growing gradually worse and that his death is likely to occur any hour. Moore says he fully realizes his condition, but does not fear death, in spite of his disbelief in God and revealed religion.

Will Wed a Cincinnati Man.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 31.—The engagement of Miss Jennie M. Hanson, of Cincinnati, and James Stone Helm, of this city, and James Stone Helm, of Cincinnati, is announced by Miss Hanson's mother, Mrs. Eva T. Hanson. The bride-to-be is one of the most prominent young business women in Central Kentucky.

Selling Whisky in Violation of Law.

Litchfield, Ky., Oct. 31.—Deputy United States Marshal T. C. Nichols and J. D. Cundiff arrived here with El Richardson, Ben Howard, John Horn, Robert Willis and Stephen Gregory, charged with selling whisky in violation of the United States revenue laws.

The York Case.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Oct. 31.—In court here the cases against William H. York and James Bart for the murder of James R. York were called and passed. The defense filed affidavits of the attending physicians that York is in a very feeble condition.

Girls As Pallbearers.

Newport, Ky., Oct. 31.—Twelve young women acted as pallbearers at the funeral of Miss Ruth Gleeson, of West Fourth street, per her last wish. Miss Gleeson was a telephone operator and the young women worked with her in the exchange.

Col. J. S. Hurt Dying.

Mt. Vernon, Ky., Oct. 31.—Col. J. Smith Hurt, aged 80, survivor of Capt. Marlin's company in the Mexican war, and colonel of the 24th Kentucky regiment, which followed Sherman to the sea, is dying here.

When a fish loses any of its scales or a wound or other means, they are soon renewed.

PERSONAL

R. B. Mullins was in Knoxville Monday.

Mrs. M. Pennington is very seriously ill.

Wesren Hughes was up from Stanford Sunday.

Mr. J. L. Joplin is spending a few days with relatives and friends.

Conn Brown came home Monday from Central University to register.

Dr. D. McDonald was here this week in the interest of the Brown Memorial School.

Miss Lillie Butler was the guest of Mrs. G. M. Ballard Saturday night and Sunday.

A Mr. Hollingsworth, of Mid dlesboro, was here Sunday to see one of our prettiest girls.

Rev. James Walton, who has been located at Limestone, Tenn., for several years, has again returned to Kentucky.

We hear that there is some probability of F. Francisco, the best hotel man in the State, coming to Mt. Vernon to run a hotel.

E. T. Wheeler went to Lomisville Saturday to see about having the mill shipped, which he will put in operation near Level Green.

Rev. Briscoe, of Bryantsville, has been called as pastor for the Baptist church for two Sundays. He will make Mt. Vernon his home.

Mr. J. M. Reynolds, the merchant prince of Bee Lick, went to Lomisville, yesterday to buy goods. W. C. Swinford and wife, of Brodhead, were guest of Dr. and Mrs. V. R. Beck.—Interior Journal.

A. W. Stewart returned Wednesday from Lomisville where he went to visit his brother, Judge J. A. Stewart, of Florida, who had come there to have an operation performed for fistula. He stood the operation first class and will soon be able to return to his home.

Mr. J. F. Waters, of Stanford, that splendid all round newspaper man and prince of good fellows, always ready to do a friend a kind deed, came to our rescue this week and only by reason of his splendid services, have we been able to any thing like supply the wants of our customers.

Dr. J. Harry Hendren was here yesterday and told us that he would leave Johnetta in about two weeks for Straight Creek, Bell county, the point, where the Big Hill Coal Co. expect to begin operations about January 1st. The Dr. is quite an acquisition to our county and we regret very much to lose him.

Mr. W. F. Ames, who assisted in starting the bank at this place, was here yesterday, the guest of A. B. Furnish. Mr. Ames is now cashier of a bank in Virginia and we are glad to know is making a success. While his bank has only been in operation a little over three years, the stock is worth more than two for one.

LOCAL

The Bank of Mt. Vernon has declared its usual ten per cent. dividend, besides putting a nice little sum to the surplus.

Albert Allie has purchased the J. J. and E. B. Drew stock of goods and will move them to a store room, which he will erect near his home.

The Big Hill Coal Company has finally decided to abandon their mines at Johnetta and go to Straight Creek, Bell county. It is their intention to have everything moved by January 1st, even the houses, when the beautiful little mining camp of Johnetta will be entirely a thing of the past.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.—One good second-hand cook stove, burns wood or coal. Will exchange for coin or produce.

TELEPHONE EXCHANGE.

Services at Presbyterian church will be resumed next Sunday, Nov. 8th. Sunday-school at 9 a. m.; church services at 11 a. m. Sermon by the pastor, Rev. John M. Bandel.

There will be a series of meetings, commencing Monday night, Nov. 6th, at the Broadhead Baptist church. Revs. R. R. Niel, A. J. Pike and Tommy Smith will do the preaching. All invited.

Hon. W. A. B. Davis, besides being a number one law maker, is also the banner gardener of the town. In this office there is now an exhibition a pumpkin, he raised, which weighs 76 pounds. He also has the prize celery, in fact the finest we have ever seen grow.

What are our people going to do about the side-walks? It does seem the property owners should be sufficiently interested in the welfare and good of the town to put down some kind of a walk in front of their property, where there is none. Walking in mud shoe-mouth deep, six months out of the year, is something not experienced in any other town that we know of except Mt. Vernon.

Owing to the fact that a majority of the people will have more pleasure than religion on the brain next Sunday, it has been suggested that Rev. Loos, whom we announced last week to preach at the Christian church, postpone his coming until some future date, and he has been notified to that effect. However, should he come, the ringing of the church bell at the usual hour will be sufficient notice.

General Deputy Collector, W. T. Short and Deputy U. S. Marshal, J. C. Mullins went to Jackson county last week and were successful in destroying two moonshine stills. One was in operation. Jno. Martin and Milton Carpenter, the offenders, were arrested and brought to this city where they were placed in jail. Their examining trial was held Monday and they were held over to the Federal grand jury.—Richmond Climax.

There was a meeting of the old soldiers of this county at the court house last Saturday, Oct. 28, to organize a post of the G. A. R. Col. L. V. Dodge, of Berea who acted as mustering officer the post was organized officers elected and installed. They will have meetings on the 4th Sunday of each month. R. M. Johnson was elected Post Commander, and he hopes all the old veterans will come out and be with them at their meetings.

SAVES.

After an absence of a few weeks I will come again. I may not have anything very interesting to write but as I write for the pleasure the writing affords me, and not any pleasure or benefit the reader may derive from what is written, it matters little what I say. —Ben Smith filed his regular appointment at Freed on Saturday and Sunday —W. H. Owens visited J. N. Brown Sunday afternoon.—The writer spent Sunday night at Lel Green. The closing exercises of Freedom Sunday School though short, were enjoyed by all.—Bill Brown will soon move to Hazel Patch where he and W. H. Gentry have purchased a new mill and will get rich quick,? —P. F. Cable and wife, who have been visiting here for the past six weeks have located at Brodhead. From one volunteer pumpkin plant, transplanted in a fence spot, W. H. Gentry has raised ten large pumpkins. The largest measuring five feet in circumference and weighing sixty-three pounds.—We will probably soon have a new post office at W. H. Owens' store.—The members of Providence church have purchased probably the largest church bell in the county. This bell measures forty two inches in diameter, weighs 720 pounds and can be heard three miles.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dowell, of Hopedale, Ill., are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Dowell has not visited her native home before in twenty-one years.—Sam Sayers has the "boss" saddle of the neighborhood.—Candidates? Why they are as thick as hops. I have become so accustomed to them that when I meet a stranger I do not wait for him to tell me that he is a candidate but tell him I am for him as hurriedly as possible and move on.—Perhaps I will come more regular hereafter, and—well, ring off".

LEVEL GREEN

We have no sickness to report this week. Level Green is soon to be blessed with a handle factory conducted by a Mr. Wheeler, who runs the same kind of a mill in Mt. Vernon. The factory will be seated on Jarvis J. Brown's land where there's a very large amount of hickory timber. We congratulate Mr. Brown on securing the seat, not only in his own interest, but for that of the community.—The campaign seems to be warming up to a white heat in this locality, between the candidates for county offices. The Independent ticket seems to be very much on top.—J. N. Brown's condition seems to be improving slowly.—Albert Hamlin spent Wednesday with J. N. Brown and made lonesome hours pass with pleasure for a sick man.—Wade Brown purchased 20 barrels of corn from Henry Catron at $2.—There is a series of meetings going on at Mt. Pleasant conducted by Rev. Wesley Colyer, of Puckaski.—"Red" Mullins, our hustling trader, is now in the foul business, having purchased over 250 geese at 40 cents. "Red" is a general trader, who always gives the top prices for every thing the farmers have to sell.—Heury Catron has sold his farm to some Harlan county party for the sum of $5000. The farm is in extra condition and under good cultivation. We are sure the purchaser will never regret the price paid. Mr. Catron is a good citizen and we regret to give him up.—Bill Brown, Jr., is visiting relatives at Science Hill. L. W. Bethurum, candidate for county judge, spoke at Poplar Grove school house Tuesday eve in the interest of his campaign.—Dr. Price can be seen now-a-days in his shirt sleeves gathering corn.—Wade Brown sold a combined saddle and harness horse to J. Thomas Cherry, of Brodhead, for $125—

John D. Pope was in Corbin Monday.—Mr. and Mrs. John Walton have erected a handsome monument over the grave of their little daughter, Ruby Clark Walton.—Mrs. James Parsons and children, of Wilke, have been guests of the McGuire and Walton families.—George and Joe Childress, of Orlando, are guests of their brother, Dr. W. J. Childress.—Miss Fanzie Lefford, of Valley View, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Henry Reynolds.—Dr. Childress was called to Brush Creek Monday by the death of his sister, Mrs. James McGaugh of consumption.—Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Westerfield returned from Stanford Tuesday.—Miss Mattie Owens of Bartowville, is the guest of Mrs. Susan Mullins.

Dr. John Brown, of Walnut Grove, has been in our vicinity several days waiting on a sick horse for J. N. Brown.—Joseph Hasty, who has been visiting his parents several months, has returned to Kansas, where he will resume work.—Green Proctor, of Quail, is still confined to his bed and is very feeble with a complication of diseases.—The wife of A. J. McMullin, is still very low.

Tom Mitchell shot and killed his brother in law, John Stevens at Livingston Sunday. There were no eye witnesses and Mitchell who is now in jail waiting his trial, has made no statement.

DENIAL.

We understand that certain parties are circulating the report that W. J. Sparks went to J. M. Craig, and tried to induce him to make the race for Superintendent of Schools, and the said Sparks, as an inducement, stated to Craig, that if he would make the race we would support him for this office. This is absolutely false. We never gave to Mr. Sparks or any one any authority to make such a promise to Craig, as we have always been and are now for the straight Republican ticket.

M. C. MILLER,
S. D. LEWIS,
L. W. BETHURUM

I confirm the truth of the above statements. I never had a conversation with any of the candidates in regard to this matter of Craig's race for County Superintendent.

W. J. SPARKS

I learn that Mr. J. M. Craig is circulating the report that I tried to get him to make the race for Superintendent of Schools. This is not true, and Mr. Craig knows that it is not. Craig and Mr. W.

J. Sparks came to my house and submitted the matter to me, and I refused to encourage them, and told Mr. Craig that Ballard will be held by more than 800 votes

I told Mr. Sparks that I could give Craig no encouragement. I then got on my horse and went to see my friends, and did all I could to stop him from making the race. I talked with my brother, W. G. Niceley, and with Judge Lewis, L. W. and R. J. Bethurum, and they did what they could to keep him off the track, and we all agreed to discourage the giving of Mr. Ballard opposition. Any statement that does not not conform to the above is untrue. Further, I went to Craig and tried to keep him from going to Frankfort to take the examination, but he would not listen to me. Very truly,

T. J. NICELEY.

The above statement of Mr. Niceley conforms to the facts as so what was said by him in the presence of Mr. Craig and myself. As nearly as I recollect Mr. Niceley would not promise his support to Craig at the time I talked with him.

W. J. SPARKS

I understand that Mr. J. Craig is telling the people, and is publishing a letter in the Signal this week to the effect that I made an effort to get him to oppose the regular nominee for Superintendent of Schools in this county, and that I agreed to give to him the support and influence of others, if he would make the race. I desire to deny this statement in every particular. He mentioned that matter to me, and I told him that he could not win, and discouraged him. I can not see why Mr. Craig would feel called upon to make such an incorrect statement, unless it be on account of the fact that he is expecting to be made a deputy clerk in case Mr. Scott is elected.

B. J. BETHURUM.

MAN'S UNREASONABLENESS

Is often as great as woman's. But Thomas S. Austin, manager of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her house hold duties." Guaranteed by Mt. Gernon Drug Co.'s drugstore. Price 50.

KIDNEY DISEASES CAUSE ONE-THIRD OF THE TOTAL DEATHS.

When the Kidneys fail to perform their functions properly by not straining out the poisonous waste matter from the blood as it passes through them, the poisons are carried by the circulation to every part of the body, deranging the different organs. This causes heart trouble, stomach trouble, sluggish liver and a host of other ills, all due to deranged Kidneys.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

corrects irregularities and cures Kidney and Bladder diseases in every form, tones up the whole system, and the diseases that have resulted from disordered Kidneys disappear, because the cause has been removed. Commence taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at the first sign of danger. Do not risk having Bright's Disease or Diabetes.

CURED OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Mr. Robert G. Burke, Elizora, Saratoga Co., N. Y., writes:—I am glad to have an opportunity of telling what magnificent results I have had from using FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE after having tried other advertised medicines and several physicians. I began it 11 months ago and my sight was so impaired that I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. In fact, I was so badly used up that I had given up hope of living when I began taking the KIDNEY CURE. I had to give up my business, was unable to work, and was urged by friends to give up all hope of ever getting well again. I had to give up all my dear ones, for I had taken the third bottle the superfluous flesh had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Kidney trouble. My friends were surprised that I was cured, as they all thought I was going to die. Every few days some one comes from miles away to tell me of the success of this wonderful medicine that cured me of Bright's Disease, and not one that has tried it has failed to be benefited.

Emperor Nicholas Issues a Manifesto Appointing Count Witte as Minister President.

PEOPLE GRANTED CIVIL LIBERTY.

It is based on inviolability of Person, Freedom of Conscience, Speech, Union and Association.

The Czar, in His Manifesto, Shows Complete Abdication of Autocratic Power and Bows To the Will of the Populace.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Emperor Nicholas issued an imperial manifesto announcing the appointment of Count Witte as minister president of Russia and granting civic liberties to the people. The following is the text of the imperial manifesto.

We, Nicholas the Second, by the grace of God emperor and autocrat of all the Russias, grand duke of Finland, etc., declare to all our faithful subjects that the troubles and agitation in our capitals and in numerous other places fill our heart with excessive pain and sorrow. The happiness of the Russian sovereign is indissolubly bound up with the happiness of our people and the sorrow of our people is the sorrow of the sovereign. From the present disorders may arise great national disruption. They menace the integrity and unity of our empire.

The supreme duty imposed upon us by our sovereign office requires us to efface ourselves to use all the force and reason at our command to hasten in securing the unity and co-ordination of the power of the central government and to assure the success of measures for pacification in all circles of public life, which are essential to the well-being of our people.

We therefore direct our government to carry out our inflexible will in the following manner:

First.—To extend to the population the immutable foundations of civic liberty, based on the real inviolability of person, freedom of conscience, speech, union and association.

Second.—Without suspending the already ordered elections to the state dumas, to invite to participation in the dumas, so far as the limited time before the convocation of the dumas will permit, those classes of the population now completely deprived of electoral rights, leaving the ultimate development of the principle of the electoral right in general to the newly established legislative order of things.

Third.—To establish as an unchangeable rule that no law shall be enforceable without the approval of the state dumas and that it shall be possible for the elected of the people to exercise real participation in the supervision of the legality of the acts of the authorities appointed by us.

We appeal to all faithful sons of Russia to remember their duty toward the fatherland, to aid in terminating these unprecedented troubles and to apply their forces, in co-operation with us, to the restoration of calm and peace upon our natal soil.

Given at Peterhof, October 30, in the eleventh year of our reign.

"NICHOLAS."

Count Witte inscribed a note to the emperor which is to be taken for a guide. In it he says:

"Your majesty has deigned to indicate to me directions for a government in consideration of the actual state of Russia.

The problem ensuing consists in the establishment of legislative forms seeming to guarantee the benefits of civil, political and economical liberty. These benefits should be extended to the masses of the people under the rector, safeguarding the laws in all civilized countries.

It must be realized, then, that these objects can not be maintained immediately as no government could suddenly prepare 150,000,000 men with a vast administration for new liberties. It is therefore necessary to have the powers of a homogeneous government united in its aims, taking care to put in practice the stimulating principles of liberty and to display sincerity and uprightness in its intentions."

The government should abstain from any interference with elections to the dumas and keep in view my sincere desire for the realization of the ukase of December 25, 1904. It must maintain the prestige of the dumas and have confidence in its labors, and in no way resist its decisions so long as they are not inconsistent with Russia's historic greatness.

It is necessary to respect the ideals of the great majority of society and not the echoes of noisy groups and factions, too often unstable. It is especially important to secure the reform of the council of the empire on an electoral principle."

A simple perusal of the manifesto shows how complete is the emperor's abdication of his autocratic power. The very style of the document is clear and direct and devoid of the verbose, vague and bombastic phrasology which heretofore has characterized his majesty's manifestos. It not only betrays real authorship, but shows that the emperor at last has irrevocably bowed to the inevitable.

The title of "Autocrat of all the Russias" is now only a name.

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

ATZC, NEW MEXICO, Oct. 12, 1905

I understand that a report has been circulated by my opponent and others, that my health is failing and that I will not get well. I wish to say that my health is improving rapidly and that I will soon be well. I hope my friends will not be misled by false statements of irresponsible persons who do not know my condition.

I have been stricken with ill health for more than a year, am among strangers and penniless, therefore am unable to make a personal canvass. If elected, and I am sure I will be, I will serve as jailer the next four years.

I appeal to my friends irrespective of party affiliation, to rally to my support and help me to win the office and God will reward you all in the great beyond.

10/20 Respectfully,
L. L. JARRETT.
